

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How much does it cost to get in? It's free!

Can I bring my dog? No, Sorry, dogs are not allowed.

Is take-out available? Absolutely. All booths, except alcohol, allow you to take your food home with you.

To whom do I write my check? To The Greek Festival.

Do you take credit/debit cards? Yes, Visa and MasterCard only.

Do you give cash back? No, we cannot hand back cash on debit cards.

Is there an ATM machine on site? No, sorry.

What ingredients are in the food? If you have an allergy, use caution and proceed at your own risk. Our food does contain soy and peanut based ingredients. Because our vendors do not disclose their ingredients to us, we cannot fully disclose this to you.

Can I sell something at the festival? If you are interested in being a vendor in the Agora, please contact us in January to make arrangements. Otherwise, the Festival Committee reviews all food and products each year for to determine if it will be sold at the Greek Festival, by the Greek Festival.

How are the charities chosen? Each year, members of our parish submit nominations for charities that support Central Virginia based efforts with children's programs, the homeless, or disadvantaged.
